

AQA City & Guilds CCEA OCR Pearson WJEC

Information for candidates for written examinations effective from 1 September 2020

This document has been written to help you. Read it carefully and follow the instructions. If there is anything you do not understand, especially which calculator you may use, ask your teacher.

Be on time for all your exams. If you are late, your work might not be accepted. Do not become involved in any unifair or dishmest practice during the exam. If you try to cheat, or break the rules in any way, you could be disqualified from all your subjects. You must not take into the exam room: O notes: O notes: Do potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwatch or a wrist watch which has a data storage device. Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see "through. Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do not intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification. If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk. Do not use correcting ens. fluid or tage, ensable pens, highlighters or get pens in your answers. Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started. You must not write inappropriate, obscience or offersive material. You want not write inappropriate, obscience or offersive material. You want not write inappropriate, obscience or offersive material. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, exams and any other examplement which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black int. Coloured pencils or risk may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. You must write clearly and in black int. Coloured pencils or risk may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the fr	A	Regulations – Make sure you understand the rules
2 Do not become involved in any unfair or dishonest practice during the exam. 1 If you try to cheat, or break the rules in any way, you could be disqualified from all your subjects. 4 You must not take into the exam room: a) notes; b) potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwatch or a wrist work which has a data storage device. Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through. Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do not intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification. 5 If you were a wrist watch the Invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk. 6 Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers. 7 Do not talk to or thy to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started. 8 You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material. 9 If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. 10 Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam. 11 You arrive intended the exam room the pension and bring what you need 12 Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each exam. 13 If you arrive intended the exam room the pension pension and bring what you need 14 You must write clearly and in tack ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question papers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. 14 You must write clearly and in back ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the posses. 15 You must write clearly and in tack ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instruc
If you try to cheat, or break the rules in any way, you could be disqualified from all your subjects.
Vou must not take into the exam room: a) notes; b) potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwistch or a wrist watch which has a data storage device. Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through. Remember: possession of unauthroised material is breaking the rules, even if you do not intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification. If you were a wrist watch the invigilator will add you to remove it and place it on your desk. Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers. Do not talk to or by to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pendits, evasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You may use a calculator: You may use a calculator: You may use a calculator: If you see a calculator: If you see a calculator: If you are a write the calculator and the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You may use a calculator: If you are a calculator: If you are a calculator: Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions printed instructions or formulae; On this instructions during the exam if the details required on the front of the materials listed on the front of the paper; Define you think you have not been given the
a) notes; b) potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwatch or a wrist watch which has a data storage device. Any penci cases taken into the exam room must be see through. Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do not intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification. 5
b) potential technological/web enabled sources of information such as an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, a smartwistch or a wrist watch which has a data storage device. Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through. Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do not intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification. If you were a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk. Do not use correcting pens, fluid or lape, erasable pens, highlighters or get pens in your answers. Do not take to or the communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pendis, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You may use a calculator can be pens, pendis, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You may use a calculator: If you se a calculator can be pens, pendis, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. A ways listen to use a calculator: If you use a calculator can be you are told otherwise. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers A way are a way that such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; On this invigilator a circle it is. If you are a calculator can be a cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; On on the away to the exam you are you exam starting the exam to a pe	4
device, a smartwatch or a wist watch which has a data storage device. Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through. Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do not intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification. If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk. Do not take to or thy to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started. You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offersive material. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam. Information — Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erases and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator in the government of the pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. If you use a calculator computer spell checkers On the paper on the front of the question paper state otherwise. The term of the paper is used as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; of on thing into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.
Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through. Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do not intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification. If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk. Do not take to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started. You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offersive material. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers If you use a calculator: If you use a calculator: If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator or you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator or you are been one present of the question paper and/or on the materials listed on the front of the paper; If the invigilator at once it: If you the a works properly check that the batteries are working properly: If the invigilator at once it: If the invigilator at once it: If the invigilator at once it: Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do not intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification. If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk. Do not use correcting per hild or tape, estable pens, highlighters or get pens in your answers. Do not use correcting pens to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started. You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam. Information — Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pends, exases and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in block ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You may use a calculator: If you are a long any parts such as cases, list or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; of near anything stored in it; or remove any parts such as cases, list or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) on on bring into the exam nor many operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been anything the details in only additional answer sheets that you use. Read carefully and follow the
you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification. If you wear a wrist watch the involigation will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk. Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers. Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started. You must not write impropriate, obscene or offersive material. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. Only take into the exam room the pens, pendis, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You may use a calculator and the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pendis, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator on the your exams the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checke runnies you are told otherwise. If the linvigilator a lone it? If you they do have problem of the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator at once it? If the li
If you wear a wrist watch the invigilator will ask you to remove it and place it on your desk.
Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gol pens in your answers. Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started. You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator before the start of each exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam noom the pens, pendis, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pendis or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. C Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You muse a calculator: If you use a calculator: a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam noom any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Instructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator into the exam noom any operating instructions or prepared programs. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or any outer than any other meason, tell	_
Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started. You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material. If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an inrigitator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigitator running the exam. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pendis, reasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You may use a calculator: If you are a calculator: If you the work properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; If the
You must not write inappropriate, obscene or offensive material.
If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return. Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam. In you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator uniting the exam. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or innis may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. You may use a calculator: a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Instructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. Be advice and assistance Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Advice and assistance If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose addi
Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam. Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive nore than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator: a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Instructions during the exam I Always listen to the linvigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the linvigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do you rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your a Information — Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each exam. If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. C Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator: a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Instructions during the exam Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designable sections of the answer booklet. Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Pu		If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return.
Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each exam.	10	Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.
If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam. If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pencifs, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. C Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers 1 You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator: a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Instructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any expl	В	Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need
If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers 1 You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. On the paper you are told otherwise. Distructions of the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Distructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not fee well; c) you meed more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the question paper, answe	1	Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each exam.
If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it. Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers 1 You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. 2 If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. 1 If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. 2 If you use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. 1 On the paper of the works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Instructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. 1 If the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Read carefully and follow the exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) You may not eak for, and will not be given, any explanation of the question paper, answer shee	2
Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam. You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator in it; c) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the question pa
You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. C calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers 1 You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. 2 If you use a calculator in the works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;	4
Instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise. C Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You may use a calculator: a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. 3
Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. If you use a calculator: a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Pastructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tiet the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Nake sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not take from the exam ro	-
1 You use a calculator unless you are told otherwise. 2 If you use a calculator: a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. 3 Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. D Instructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. 2 Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. 3 Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. 4 When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. 5 Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. 6 Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance 1 If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you oned more paper. 3 You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any a	С
If you use a calculator: a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer speil checker unless you are told otherwise. D Instructions during the exam 1 Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. 1 Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. 3 Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. 4 When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you offill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. 5 Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance 1 If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. 2 Put up your hand during the exam it: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. 3 You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam 1 If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. 2 Do a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly; b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Instructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room any stationery. This includes
b) clear anything stored in it; c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Day Instructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your ranswers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answers sheets inside your answers beets that you use. Do not leave the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made availa	-
c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae; d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Distructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you need more paper. Je you must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs. Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Naways listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise. Instructions during the exam Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand by our candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
D	3
Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions. Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
Tell the invigilator at once if: a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you on ot feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper; b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed. Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance I fron the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	2
Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet. When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room on any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
When the invigilator tells you, fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you on of feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	3 before you start the exam. Make sure you fill these details in on any additional answer sheets that you use. Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	_
Semember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet. Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance I fon the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	4
Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. 3 You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the guestions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room on any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	-
Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use for rough work. E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
E Advice and assistance If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	6
If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator. Put up your hand during the exam if:	_
Put up your hand during the exam if: a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do; b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. 3 You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam 1 If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. 2 Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. 3 Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
b) you do not feel well; c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	2
c) you need more paper. You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions. At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
F At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.		c) you need more paper.
If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.		You must not not for and will not be given any avalantion of the questions
Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	3	Tou must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions.
Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.
Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	F	At the end of the exam
Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	F	At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order.
Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	F	At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet.
work or any other materials provided for the exam. This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	F 1	At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use.
This information must be made available to all candidates in advance of their examination(s) for each series.	1 2	At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator.
	1 2	At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough
It may be provided electronically to candidates or in hard come paper format	F 1 2 3	At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam.
at may be promised electronically to calibrates of in flare copy paper format.	F 1 2 3 This i	At the end of the exam If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order. Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use. Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator. Do not take from the exam room any stationery. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam.